Obituary

Wanda Parker Coleman was born to the late Marshall Parker, Sr. and Emma Mae Shepherd Parker on February 21, 1956. At an early age, she united with Pleasant Hill B.C. in Dubberly, Louisiana. She graduated from Southside High School in Ringgold, Louisiana in 1974.

She united Holy Matrimony to Wilbert Lee Cosby who preceded her in death. Throughout her life, Wanda strived to be active in her church community as well as the workforce. During that time, Wanda worked to support her two children. For over 20 years, she worked for Willamette Industries. She believed in providing what was necessary for her family.

After Willamette Industries came to a sudden close, Wanda decided to change her career path. She also wedded Sylvester Coleman until his death. The sky was the limit for her. There was nothing she felt she could not accomplish. She believed in treating others fairly. Most of all, Wanda had a genuine passion for family and friends.

She will be remembered by her family and friends for being a giving, loving, and hard-working individual. Wanda was known for being straight-forward and full of humor.

Wanda is preceded in death by her husband: Sylvester Coleman; father, Marshall Parker, Sr.; mother: Emma Mae Parker and brother: Roger Parker.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories, two children: Andrew Jerome(Christina) Parker of Bossier City, Louisiana, LaRhonda(Ray) Ivory of Gibsland, Louisiana; sister: Vera(Leroy) Hicks of Houston, Texas; brothers: Marshall(Barbara) Parker, Jr. of Minden, Louisiana, John H. (Linda) Parker of Minden, Louisiana; sister-in-law: Marvis Parker of Haynesville, Louisiana; grandchildren: Vanity Parker of Killeen, Texas, Andrea and Adria Parker of Bossier City, Louisiana; great-grandchildren: Katelynn Clinton of Killeen, Texas, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
